- When selecting electives, write in the comment - (1st choice, 2nd choice, 3rd choice...).
- Please select at least 6 electives.
- If electives are not selected, they will be automatically selected.

The screenshot shows the 'COMMUNITY PORTAL' for Anytown Public Schools. The user is John Aalto. The page title is 'John Aalto - Course Recommendations'. There are two existing recommendations: 'AP Calculus AB' and 'AP Statistics', both recommended by 'Haddad, George'. Each has an 'Approve/Reject Recommendation' button. On the right, there is a form to 'Add a New Course Recommendation'. The 'Course' dropdown is set to 'French I'. The 'Comment' field contains the text 'text'. There is an 'Add New Course Recommendation' button at the bottom of the form.

Additional Notes

See course descriptions for new electives, they are located in the Program of Studies.

Senior Career Planning and Development is exclusively for seniors, who meet certain criteria, see Mrs. Hill for more information.

Art Portfolio is for 11th and 12th grade students, see Mrs. DiChiara for more information.

Teacher Assistants are for seniors only, if you would like to be a TA, see Mrs. Hill for an application, the application is due to Mrs. Hill NO LATER than April 4, 2024.

If an elective does not show up, because it was selected in the past, please email Mrs. Hill (dhill@apps.avon.k12.ma.us) and it will be selected.

Please email Ms. Berardi (cberardi@apps.avon.k12.ma.us) or Mrs. Hill (dhill@apps.avon.k12.ma.us) with any questions.

Again, all course selections are due by April 4, 2024.

Please note that electives may change without notice
